Re: United States v. Dennis Graham
Criminal Docket No. 11-cr-424 (S3) (JG)

Dear Judge Gleeson:

For the reasons set forth below, I write to request that the sentence hearing in this case, currently scheduled for August 10, 2012, be rescheduled to October 12, 2012.

The adjournment is requested so that the parties have enough time to review the presentence report¹, raise possible objections and submit all of the relevant background information to the Court so that a sentence “sufficient but not greater than necessary” pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3553(a) can be imposed. This effort includes counsel having sufficient time to obtain and review the transcript of the trial of a related defendant, James Rosemond. It is my understanding that evidence was adduced at this proceeding that concerned Graham’s alleged role in the Rosemond organization.

Accordingly, I respectfully request that the sentence hearing be rescheduled to October 12, 2012. I have conferred with the attorney for the government, Todd Kaminsky, and confirmed that he is available on this day and that he does not oppose this request.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Steve Zissou
